

Scott Brewer

Executive Biography

Scott Alan Brewer currently serves as Senior Vice President of Government Affairs and Community Relations/Security for Four Winds Casino Resorts. Four Winds Casinos senior most executive accountable for the development and oversight of policies and programs intended for the mitigation and/or reduction of compliance, operational, strategic, financial and reputational security risk. Interfaces with Governmental entities to ensure regulatory compliances are met. Maintains positive relations with Community leaders in the region. Oversees all philanthropic endeavors that the Four Winds Casino are involved with. Scott was a key part of and advisor in the opening of expansion properties Four Winds Hartford in 2011 and Four Winds Dowagiac in 2013 and Four Winds South Bend in 2018.

Collectively Scott has more than 30 years of strong and diverse leadership. Most recently, nine years in the Native American casino/gaming environment. Prior to joining the Four Winds corporate team he retired from the US Air Force with over 27 years of service, attaining the rank of Chief Master Sergeant. Last position held with the Air Force was Chief Recruiting Liaison as representative for the Air Force Recruiting Command Headquarters serving all human resource and recruiting capacities to include, but not limited to, providing strategic leadership that affects global policy, staffing and performance management.

Scott is also a citizen of the Pokagon Band of Potawatomi Indian Nation. Pokagon Band is a federally recognized sovereign tribe in Northern Indiana & Southwest Michigan. He has been an advisor to Pokagon Tribal Council on several matters and has been Chairman of the Pokagon Veteran Affairs, as well as past Chairman of the Pokagon Health Board.